COURSE #1: Explore Eastern Lake Ontario (Toronto, ON to Toronto, ON)

Depart Toronto for a scenic sail along the northern shore of Lake Ontario, exploring various small harbours along the way. After 3 days sailing East with the prevailing winds, return to Toronto in time to participate in the Redpath Toronto Waterfront Festival featuring Tall Ships from around the world. What a great way to start the summer.

Departing: Sunday, June 27th Arriving: Friday, July 2nd Duration: 6 Days Cost: $750

COURSE #2: Tall Ship Challenge 2010 - Leg 1 (Toronto, ON to Bay City, MI)

Participate in the Tall Ship Challenge 2010 sailing series by joining an international fleet of tall ships in Toronto and set sail for Bay City, MI. In transit navigate the locks of the Welland Canal, traverse Lake Erie, the shallowest of the Great Lakes, and follow the Great Lakes water system North through Lake St. Clair and emerge into beautiful Lake Huron. Hugging the West shore finally arrive with the rest of the tall ship fleet in Bay City. This is a fantastic opportunity to explore the lower Great Lakes, navigate one of the world's most significant shared international waterways and participate in an international sailing event.

Departing: Monday, July 5th Arriving: Friday, July 16th Duration: 12 days Cost: $ 1,450

COURSE #3: The North Channel and Georgian Bay (Bay City, MI to Parry Sound, ON)

Departing Bay City with the International Tall Ship Fleet, sail up Lake Huron to the western entrance of the North Channel. Traverse the entire North Channel (one of the most beautiful cruising grounds in the world) taking advantage of prevailing winds, stopping along the way to explore the many islands, beaches, and coves. Finally exit through the Eastern entrance and cruise down scenic Georgian Bay to Parry Sound. Amazing does not even begin to describe this Tall Ship Adventure.

Departing: Saturday, July 17th Arriving: Thursday, July 29th Duration: 13 days Cost: $1,560

COURSE #4: Southern Georgian Bay and the Bruce Peninsula (Parry Sound to Owen Sound)

Departing scenic Parry Sound, explore the beautiful Eastern shore of Georgian Bay. Visit some of the many beautiful islands, beaches and inlets that the bay is famous for. Sail past Red Rock and find out why it got its name. Finally traverse Georgian Bay and arrive in picturesque Owen Sound, home of WW1 ace Billy Bishop, on the Western side.

Departing: Saturday, July 31st Arriving: Saturday, Aug 7th Duration: 8 days Cost: $1,000

COURSE #5: The North Channel Take Two (Owen Sound to Tobermory, ON)

Let the winds take you to one of the greatest cruising grounds in the world. Sail from Owen Sound North to the Eastern entrance of the North Channel. Explore the Eastern end of the Channel, eat fresh fish and chips in Killarney, enjoy delicious ice cream in Little Current, and swim under the Bridal Falls. After leaving the North Channel sail through the islands of Fathom Five National Park on your way to scenic Tobermory at the top of the Bruce Peninsula, home of the Che-Cheemaun Ferry.

Departing: Sunday, August 8th Arriving: Sunday, August 15th Duration: 8 days Cost: $1,000

COURSE #6: Chicago Bound - Rejoin the Tall Ship Challenge Fleet (Tobermory to Chicago, IL)

Departing scenic Tobermory at the top of the Bruce Peninsula head West past historic Mackinac Island, through the narrows connecting Lake Huron and Lake Michigan, and sail into the beautiful waters of Northern Lake Michigan. Explore the many islands and coves in this area before reaching down the entire length of the lake to the windy city, Chicago. Join the rest of the Tall Ship Fleet in Chicago for the largest Tall Ship festival on the Great Lakes at historic Navy Pier. This is a unique opportunity to explore the "Upper Great Lakes" and visit Toronto's exciting "sister city" on the Great Lakes, Chicago.

Departing: Monday, August 16th Arriving: Wednesday, August 25th Duration: 10 days Cost: $1,225

COURSE #7 - Homeward Bound (Chicago, IL to Goderich, ON)

Summer is not over yet. Late August offers some of the best sailing weather of the season. Sail with the tall ship fleet from Chicago as they head out of the Great Lakes to other ports around the world. Reach up beautiful Lake Michigan, enjoying the islands along the way, traverse the Mackinac Straits between Lake Michigan and Lake Huron and sail South down Lake Huron, finally arriving in historic Goderich, once a key port on the Great Lakes.

Departing: Sunday, August 29th Arriving: Sunday, September 5th Duration: 8 day Cost: $1,000

COURSE #8 - Open Cruise for Adult/Alumni (Goderich to Toronto, ON)

Sail three of the Great Lakes with the wind at your back. Traverse Lake St Clair on your way from Lake Huron to Lake Erie, run the entire length of Lake Erie and enter the Welland Canal, stopover in historic Niagara on the Lake (time permitting) before making your final crossing of Lake Ontario to Toronto. This is a great opportunity for those who have never sailed a Tall Ship or the Great Lake System to experience both in one week. For alumni it is an opportunity to get reacquainted with the thrills and adventure of sailing on the vessels. Arrange a group of 12-15 and charter an entire vessel with your own customized itinerary.

Departing: Saturday, Sept 11th Arriving: Sunday, Sept 19th Duration 9 days Cost: $1,125, alumni $400
